THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

DESIGNED AND DRAWN BY
C. P. FROST, PHILA., PA.

The Day of Atonement is the most solemn and sacred of all the feasts. It is a day of fasting and prayer, and is a day when the high priest enters the Holy of Holies and sprinkles blood on the golden coverlet of the ark of the covenant. The Day of Atonement is a day of purification and renewal, and is a day when the people are cleansed from all their iniquities.

Outline of the Book of Leviticus

- 1) Laws concerning Sacrifice (1-7). In this section five types of offerings are discussed: burnt offerings, meal offerings, peace offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings. This is filled out by a discussion of the sin offering as it is to be observed by various classes of individuals.
- 2) An historical section featuring the consecration of the priests (8-9) and the sin of Nadab and Abihu (ch. 10).
- 3) A section on laws of purification from ceremonial uncleanness (11-15). These furnish instructions as to the appropriate sacrifices and ordinances for ridding oneself of impurity.
- 4) The Day of Atonement (ch. 16).
- 5) Laws dealing with the conduct of God's people (17-20). These include various religious and ethical laws designed to accent the separation between Israel and the heathen nations.
- 6) Laws concerning the holiness of the priests (21-22).
- 7) A discussion of holy days and feasts (23-24). Included in this section are the Sabbath, Passover, the feasts of first fruits and harvest, Pentecost, the Day of Atonement and the feast of Tabernacles.
- 8) The Sabbatical and Jubilee Years (ch. 25).
- 9) Promises and threats connected with obedience to the laws (ch. 26).
- 10) An appendix containing the laws concerning vows (ch. 27).
